

Business Use Cases

- Ask questions and get quick answers from your coworkers.
- Share news and announcements with people who need to know.
- Replace email and IM for most internal communication.
- Stay up-to-date on what others are working on and what's happening in your organization.
- Unify all units and allow previously siloed groups to collaborate.
- Surface decisions and make them visible to your coworkers.
- Brainstorm new ideas and collaboratively solve problems.
- Rapidly disseminate information to many people, without spamming them via mailing lists.
- Stay productive when you're out of the office or on the go.
- Meet people in your organization who share your interests and who can help you to get your work done.
- Connect remote workers and keep them at the same level.
- Increase employee engagement and participation in discussions, opinions and ideas from across your company.
- Have relevant discussions about topics, groups and tags.
- Discover valuable information in past discussions even if you weren't part of them.
- Introduce new employees and get them up to speed faster.
